

City of College Park
Proclamation
Recognizing Jackson Myers

WHEREAS: We recognize Mr. Jackson Myers for his exemplary skills in management, city government and his ability to adapt quickly and accept the challenges before him; and

WHEREAS: With 16 years of military experience in the United States Army and 17 years of service with the City of College Park, Mr. Myers passion lies at the helm of Engineering, where his success is indisputable. Mr. Myers is the first to acknowledge and spearhead the renaming of City Hall in honor of Mayor Jack P. Longino; and

WHEREAS: Mr. Myers has been recognized for his leadership within the City of College Park and the State of Georgia. After several predecessors said ‘no’, Mr. Myers was able to have a ‘quiet zone’ on Main Street so that the train would not disrupt the local business. This even led to parklets along Main Street for the local restaurants and citizens to enjoy; and

WHEREAS: Mr. Myers has served in the Interim City Manager position from June 14, 2022, until April 3, 2023; and during his short tenure have acquired millions of dollars of grant money for the city. Including gaining money for COVID relief for residents’ utilities who lost their jobs; and

WHEREAS: During his time as Interim City Manager, Mr. Myers stewardship allowed the City to confront many challenges, while improving employees’ access to affordable health care, discovering, mentoring and developing talent within the organization; and

WHEREAS: Mr. Myer’s dedication to the City of College Park is unparalleled and we are forever grateful for his willingness to serve.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED THAT THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLLEGE PARK RECOGNIZES:

Mr. Jackson Myers for His Extraordinary Performance as Interim City Manager

PROCLAIMED THIS 3rd DAY OF APRIL 2023.

CITY OF COLLEGE PARK

Bianca Motley Broom, Mayor

Ambrose Clay, Councilman

Joe Carn, Councilman

Ken Allen, Councilman

Roderick D. Gay, Councilman

ATTEST:

Shavala Ames, City Clerk